The schedule - 9:30AM to 5:30PM Friday and then 9:00AM to 5:00PM on Saturday

As of today the hotels are still negotiating with us on room rates so they will have no idea if you call them to reserve a sleeping room. Please wait to arrange for overnight accommodations. That information will be posted over the next 10 days as we finalize the details. If for any reason we need to move the location it will be to a comparable hotel in the near vicinity. I know that is a little unusual but here is the strategy; you get the best deals on sleeping and banquet rooms if you wait until 3 weeks out to book your event as the hotel knows they have very little hope of filling the room that late in the calendar. So here again we are working to keep your cost to a bare minimum. We know how tough the last four years have been in your business.

Pick the date and town that works best for you.

We recommend you do not plan on leaving early Saturday as some of the most important and vital information will be delivered in the last hour. The Joint Venture session may be the easiest and most profitable campaign you can implement. Don't miss that one.
